At the start of a new project, I think for me idea with more functionality and clarity to making and adjusting. For the idea, I think it might be used, and in practice.
Good design communication and established a dialogue with the customer. Design is not just about functionality - it is an idea about the customer's needs and respect.
To me, customer when my design bring up in the company team of people.

"Design for The People is a way of creating cool design products at a price everyone can afford. Design with a Nordic level interest for people all over the world."
